

Master of Business Administration

Credits · Intakes · Format · Capstone · Time

36 Credit Hours May -September-January Cohort based -Fully Online Business as Mission Project 1 Year Program

Master of Business Administration Lead with Integrity. Build with Strategy. Serve with Purpose.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Earn your MBA at Kingswood University and step confidently into leadership that makes a difference. Through rigorous business training rooted in a Christian worldview, you'll learn to think strategically, lead ethically, and create lasting value. This 36-credit, one-year program equips you to influence your organization, strengthen team culture, and deliver mission-driven results—whether you're advancing in the corporate world, leading a nonprofit, or launching your own venture.

PROGRAM DISTINCTIVES

- → Finish in one year Fully Online!
- Designed for working professionals seeking advancement
- Small cohorts for peer learning and mentorship
- Business as Mission capstone emphasizing purpose and profit

COURSE LIST

- Principles of Ethical Leadership & Management
- Organizational Behaviour & Human Resources
- Non-Profit Management & Philanthropy
- Accounting for Small Businesses
- Financial Management & Stewardship
- Marketing in a Global Environment

- Operations & Supply Chain Management
- Artificial Intelligence & Business Innovation
- Strategic Planning & Organizational Change
- Project Management
- Entrepreneurship & New Business Ventures
- Capstone Project: Business as Mission

COST OF ATTENDENCE

The Kingswood MBA is designed for leaders who want more than a cre-dential. Our program integrates rigorous business education with a faith-based foundation, preparing graduates to lead with integrity, innovation, and impact. Whether you're guiding a > business, non profit, or ministry, this MBA helps you connect your values with real-world strategy. Through practical projects, mentorship, and a supportive community, you'll gain the skills and confidence to create meaningful change in your organization and the world

— Jeff Hughes, Head of Business and Management, Kingswood University